to Mr. Vito Cassone, the Governor of LIONS Club Luxembourg and Alimentary Bank;

Mr. Stefan Chorus, the President of the Foundation Lions Luxembourg;

Madame Marie-France Fassotte
Steinmetz, the General coordinator of the Foundation Lions Luxembourg;

Mr. Marc Crochet, the General Manager of Caritas Luxembourg;

Mr. Camille Groos, the President of Pharmaciens Sans Frontiere;

Mr. Michel Schuetz, the General Manager of Logistique and Medical Materials;

Mr. Romain Labbe, the Coordinator of Logistique and Medical Materials;

Mr. Nicolas Zharov, the President of ASBL Help Ukraine.

The Karlivka Town Council of Poltava District in Poltava Region works closely with Salvatore Corelli, Lions Club Xenium Luxembourg, Caritas Luxembourg, Pharmaciens Sans Frontiere and ASBL Help Ukraine, who provided significant support to residents of the Karlivka territorial community and IDPs (internally displaced persons) during 2022, namely: purchased medicines, medical equipment for the city hospital; food for internally displaced persons affected by hostilities in Ukraine and vulnerable residents of the territorial community.

The Karlivka Community extends its sincere thanks to Mr. Vito Cassone (the Governor of LIONS Club Luxembourg and Alimentary Bank), Mr. Stefan Chorus (the President of Foundation Lions Luxembourg), Madame Marie-France Fassotte Steinmetz (General Coordinator of Foundation Lions Luxembourg), Mr. Marc Crochet (General Manager of Caritas Luxembourg),

Mr Camille Groos (the President of harmaciens Sans Frontiere), Mr. Michel Schuetz (General Manager of Logistique and Medical Materials), Mr. Romain Labbe (Coordinator of Logistique and Medical Materials), Mr. Nicolas Zharov (the President of ASBL Help Ukraine) and the organization's staff, for the support and humanitarian assistance provided for the territorial defence bodies of the community and internally displaced persons. We would like to note that your assistance was extremely necessary and useful, since our state needs such kind of charitable initiatives that contribute to improving the living standard of the disadvantaged segments of the population: the poor, the disabled, the elderly, IDPs, etc. By providing help at this difficult time for all of us, you give not just material values, but give hope that together we will overcome any trials. We appreciate your efforts, which are a manifestation of humanism and empathy for the fate of the Ukrainian people.

Thank you for showing mercy and being sensitive to people in need. We wish you prosperity, success in your human endeavor!

We express confidence in maintaining friendly relations and hope for further cooperation after the end of martial law in Ukraine, and invite you to visit our community at your convenience.

Sincerely,

responsible person for the cooperation and humanitarian aid

Yurii Tkachov
